

Property Care Association (PCA) Factsheet

Architects

Why choose the PCA?

The Property Care Association can provide advice and help on remedial issues to architects. The PCA has an extensive list of reliable companies offering guaranteed professional workmanship.

PCA members offer a competitive, fast-turnaround service to produce comprehensive reports and estimates, will the Association provides a technical resource at the forefront of the industry.

The PCA offers specialist help and advice on topics including:

- Condensation control – including new build and renovation projects
- Damp proofing
- Flood aftermath
- Remedial Timber Treatment
- Structural maintenance
- Structural Waterproofing

The PCA benefits the architectural professional through;

- Strict membership criteria
- Training courses
- Technical advice
- Design Capabilities
- A respected Code of Practice
- TrustMark approved membership standards
- Mediation
- Technical panel with specific expertise of working with architects
- Guaranteed craftsmanship
- Trained and qualified staff
- Educational role and information resource for surveying professionals

Working with a PCA member will guarantee a fairly priced professional service.

All PCA members are qualified to a professional standard in the area in which they work.

The PCA offers an approved mediation service backed by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

Furthermore, all members are insured and offer a PCA approved guarantee.

To find out more log onto the PCA website www.property-care.org or contact 0870 1216737.